

International Real Estate Management

Hochschule Fresenius, Campus Berlin
Master of Science

Program

Are you looking to advance your real estate career internationally? Our Master's program in International Real Estate Management (M.Sc.) equips you with the expertise required for key roles in the global market. The four-semester course is conducted entirely in English, allowing you to deepen your knowledge in finance, law, sustainability, and management. You can further personalize your studies through a wide range of electives and international study opportunities.

Key Facts

Semester 4
Credits 120 CP
Studienbeginn Winter semester
Sprache Englisch
Studiengangsform Full time
Bewerbungsfrist possible all year round
Studiengebühren 880,00 € monthly + 70,00 € per month (non-EU)

Contact

Study advice
Phone: +49 (0)221 650339 88
E-Mail: study@hs-fresenius.de

Request info brochure!

Content

Curriculum

This master's program integrates management, finance, law, and sustainability to equip you for leadership positions in an international environment. Through practical research and interdisciplinary projects, you will enhance your analytical, strategic, and intercultural competencies. Among the subjects you will study are:

- International Investments
- Real Estate Management (Asset, Property & Portfolio)
- Urbanism & Sustainability
- International Real Estate Law
- Strategy and Management
- Data Analysis and Digital Trends
- Project Management and Innovation
- Excursions to Singapore or Dubai

Career

Career Prospects

Benefit from practical teaching by industry-experienced lecturers and gain real-world insights through projects and field trips to Dubai and Singapore. The international program, taught entirely in English, helps you connect theory and practice, expand your network, and prepare for a global real estate career.

- Project Development
- Corporate Real Estate Management
- Investment Management

- Urban Planning and Development
- Real Estate Consulting
- Financial Institutions
- Sustainability Management
- Research and Academia

Admission

Admission Requirements

To qualify for admission to the International Real Estate Management (M.Sc.) master's program at Fresenius University of Applied Sciences, you must meet the following requirements:

- You need a bachelor's degree comprising at least 180 ECTS credits, at least 30 of which must be in business-related subjects.
- You must either be a native English speaker or provide evidence of English language proficiency at a B2 (CEFR) level, for example with a minimum TOEFL iBT score of 70 or an IELTS score of at least 6.0.

Alternative admission options: If you do not yet fulfill all requirements, you can take an admissions test or participate in preparatory courses to gain the necessary qualifications.

Wirtschaftswissenschaften